STEVE AUSTIN

Swenson Advisors

Each year our editors, senior management and publisher select a list of those they feel are true centers of influence within the business community. You have been included among those selected as nominees for 2014. Finalists will be announced shortly but, to be placed on the list of nominees is in itself recognition of your contributions. Congratulations and thank you for your efforts. The Daily Transcript/San Diego Source looks forward to covering your accomplishments and involvement in the year ahead.
